Agitation Developed for Chamber of Commerce; Organization Needed

Business Men Believe Village Should Organize as Done Elsewhere

Agitation for the formation of a Chamber of Commerce in Antioch has developed in the last few weeks.

Need for some kind of organization through which the business and professional men of the village can operate as a clearing house for ideas and plans has become quite evident.

This was never more apparent than last week when some of the merchants sought an agreement to close for the funeral of Fred Peterson and too, for the legal holidays of Christmas and New Year.

After much telephoning and at the last minute when it came too late to publicize the plans, the agreements were reached by some of the merchants who took the initiative and closed.

There was a time when the Lions club, made up of local merchants, provided a unit of action, and it still does in respects for the Antioch area, but that its membership extends beyond the village limits it cannot be asked to limit its interests to the village alone as would a Chamber of Commerce.

"We don't want a business men's organization merely for agreeing on opening or closing," said one merchant. "We want it as a booster organization for local business. We want to extend our trading area." He proposed a Chamber of Commerce that would affiliate with the state and national organization as a means of making it permanent through the aid the greater organization can give.

Wauconda, the Round Lake area, and North Chicago are other places in Lake County that are benefiting from new Chambers of Commerce.

Antioch Banks Report Increased Business for 1949 in All Branches

If business in Antioch can be measured by its two banks, the year of 1949 was a good one, for both had increased business.

In announcing a 6 per cent dividend, E. J. Sletten, cashier of the First National Bank of Antioch, said that his institution had a very good year this year and that increases have been shown in all departments. The bank distributed $9,000 in Christmas Savings accounts this month which added to the volume of trade in the community.

William Brook, vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, said his bank likewise had a very good year with an increase in business over last year. A complete report is to be made at the meeting of the directors early in January.

Brook said that his bank turned loose $17,000 in Christmas savings to spark the Christmas trade. While the amount of a dividend will not be made until the January meeting, he said that $15,000 has been applied toward the surplus account.

Einstein Announces His New Theory on Gravitation

Dr. Albert Einstein, whose theory of relativity resulted in the discovery of the atom bomb, has announced an even more sensational theory which he calls "a generalized theory of gravitation."

It is a mathematical description of the mystery of gravity—the common force that keeps one's feet on the ground and rules the movement of stars.

If it can be proved, it will become a universal law; standing as the highest achievement of all time, but Einstein admits he doesn't know how to go about proving it.

The theory would explain every physical motion in the universe from the inside of the atom to the galaxies of outer space such as the Milky Way.

Mrs. Thielemann in Hospital
Mrs. William Thielemann, 1034 Victoria st., was taken to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan Sunday for observation as a medical patient. The trip was made in the Antioch Rescue squad ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Mau spent Christmas Day in Kenosha with Mr. and Mrs. William Roepke.

American Legion Has Fine Christmas Party

The American Legion Christmas party held here Sunday, Dec. 18, was a huge success. Children of all ages were there in enjoying the games and refreshments.

There was real excitement, however, when Santa Claus arrived amid the jingle of bells, carrying a large pack in which was a gift for each child.

The grownups were highly entertained by the carol singing which was led by Frank Nejdil at the piano. It was a happy time for all.

The next regular meeting Thursday, Jan. 5, will be a chili supper prepared by Harry Message.

Antioch Merchants Say '49 Was Good Business Year Despite Handicaps

Better Merchandise Finds Ready Sale, Many TV Sets Purchased

Most of the Antioch merchants are agreeing that the year of 1949 has been a good business year.

Total sales approached last year which was considered an excellent business year and all this despite the strikes and other interruptions of trade which marked 1949.

"Better quality merchandise was purchased this year than last and less money was spent on the cheaper merchandise," one merchant summed the buying habits of the public.

One item that had a big sale this year was the television which is making its inroads just as radio did 20 years ago. Antioch's reception is entirely from Chicago.

While prices remained stable on most manufactured articles, there was downward tendency in the highly competitive fields and this had its effect on the amount of sales. It took a sale of more articles to produce the volume of stores.

Stores having toys left need not have to worry about their disposal as they did at the close of the war when the material was poor. Material now is good and the stock that is left can be carried over until next year easily. Variety stores find that their sales of toys in this vacation land are just as great in the summer time as they are in the winter.

Tavern owners said they had good holiday trade and resorts which are preparing to close after Jan. 1 until early spring all say they had a good year.

Their hope is that 1950 will be equally as good.

Sheridan Burnette's Brother, George, Dies At Port Crane N. Y.

Word was received in Antioch Tuesday that George Burnette died at Port Crane, N. Y. after a lingering illness.

He is a brother of Sheridan Burnette of Antioch and Norman Burnette of Libertyville.

Mr. Burnette was born in Antioch township on the John Dalziel farm, later moving to a farm south of Lake Villa where he resided for many years. Still later his work took him to Pennsylvania where he married Bessie Corey. They again took up residence at Lake Villa and to them two children, Arlene and Cameron were born.

Mrs. Burnette was stricken with influenza and died at a Waukegan hospital. Upon her death George and his two children moved to Hop Bottom, Pa., where the children were raised by their grandmother, Mrs. Corey.

In later years he again married and to this union five children were born. He leaves the wife and seven children besides two brothers.

Farm Adviser to Speak Before Antioch Night Class in Agriculture

Ray Nicholas, Lake County farm adviser, will be the speaker at the first meeting of the Vocational Agriculture evening class on Wednesday, Jan. 4, in the Antioch Township High school agriculture room.

His topic will be "Testing Soil, Its Purpose and Importance."

These classes are under the supervision of August L. Wichert, vocational agriculture instructor at the high school. The meeting will start at 7:30 p. m.

William J. Meyer Dies Of Injuries Received In Automobile Accident

William J. Meyer, 55, of Grass Lake, died at 3:30 p. m. Sunday at Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan, from injuries received in an automobile accident Friday night on Rte. 59 not far from his home.

Mr. Meyer suffered a fractured skull when his car skidded on the icy pavement, rolled over and crashed into a telephone pole.

Members of the Antioch Rescue squad extricated him from the wreckage by forcing their way into the automobile.

Mr. Meyer, an employee of the Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois, was born Sept. 23, 1894, at Wilmette, and lived there and in Evanston until coming to Grass Lake in 1935.

He was a member of St. Peter's church, Antioch, and was a member of the Holy Name Society of that church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Frances Weiszorek, of Evanston, Mrs. Betty MacDonald and Miss Blanche Meyer, of Antioch; two sons, Arthur and William, Jr., of Antioch; a sister, Mrs. Sue Loebaka, of Evanston; his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer of Evanston, and eight grandchildren. His wife, Judith M., died Nov. 7, 1948.

The funeral service was held at 10 a. m. yesterday at St. Peter's church with the Rev. Francis Flaherty officiating. Interment was at Mt. Carmel.

Rosary was said at the Strang funeral home Tuesday evening. The inquest was held that afternoon.

Gresens Seeks Workers For March Of Dimes Campaign Next Month

Edward Gresens today asked for volunteers to help for several hours during the March of Dimes campaign in January, which he will promote as chairman.

He urged persons knowing of polio cases to notify him so that proper remedial steps can be taken by the National Foundation for infantile paralysis. He listed his telephone number as Antioch 531-R.

Gresens disclosed that infantile paralysis is striking an increasing greater number of adults than ever before. Surveys by the NFIP show that in adult cases, the disease is more extensive in its effects than children.

In 1916 only 3.7 percent of infantile paralysis patients were over 15 years of age, but this rose to 25 percent in 1947 and today about the same percentage applies.

"Many persons think that the disease only strikes children," he said. "While it is true that about 80 percent are children, we now know that this impression is basically incorrect. And that the disease usually strikes older persons more severely than children, although the death is approximately the same for both groups."

More than 40,000 polio victims in 1949, cost $100,000 a day during the height of the epidemic! An estimated $31,000,000 was spent for medical care. Some 17,000 patients stricken in 1949 to be cared for in 1950! More than $8,500,000 in March of Dimes money sent by mid-November to local chapters whose own treasury funds had been depleted.

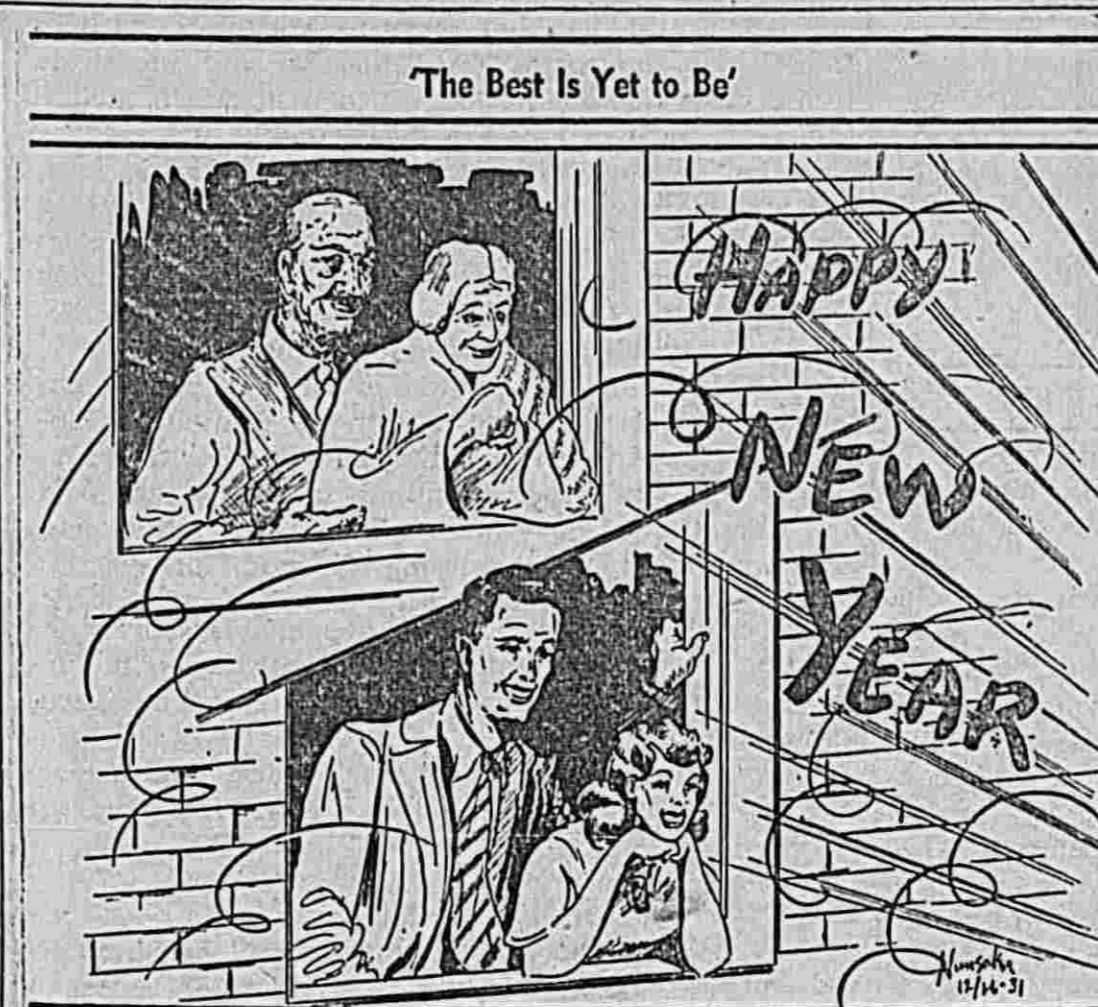

Gresens pointed out that the National Foundation pursues a two-fold program—helping to provide medical care and treatment for victims of infantile paralysis and supporting a comprehensive research and education program seeking cure, preventative and improved treatment for this crippling disease.

"If a polio epidemic struck Antioch Township," Gresens said, "the Lake County Chapter would go into action immediately. Medical and nursing care for the stricken would be provided, polio aid teams would be rushed in if needed. Equipment such as respirators, hot pack machines and other special polio devices would be dispatched to Lake County from six centrally located emergency equipment pools."

Double Celebration

There were two Christmas trees at the Jack Steiber family home on Rte. 173 and Lake dr., Lake Catherine, this year.

A large one was the Yuletide tree for Rejoice Grace Steiber and her brother, Jack Peter Steiber, and the other, a small one, was in acknowledgement of Rejoice's eleventh birthday anniversary. Thus, she knew which were birthday and which Christmas presents.

McMillen Denies He Is Candidate For Sheriff; No Time for Campaign

"I haven't the time to give to a campaign for sheriff," Mayor Jim McMillen told the Antioch News yesterday.

A Chicago newspaper published the report that McMillen, recently successful in the race for president of the Antioch village board would seek the county office.

McMillen said there was no basis for the report.

He said that two Chicago newspaper men had been out to see him but he told them he did not have the time to give to a county wide campaign although he was appreciative of the fact that he is being sought as a candidate for sheriff as badly as he was sought for the village presidency.

"I've got too many irons in the fire now to give any time to a campaign," said McMillen.

He said he would take his job as village president seriously and wants to give all the time that is needed to it.

Ed. Simonsen Chosen By Firemen As Chief To Succeed McMillen

Edgar Simonsen has been recommended by his colleagues on the fire department for fire chief subject to the action of the village board next Tuesday.

Simonsen, now assistant fire chief, takes the place of Chief James W. McMillen who automatically vacated the office when he was elected president of the village board.

McMillen, who was unable to be at the firemen's meeting because of a wrestling engagement in Chicago, was pleased with the selection. Simonsen was his appointee.

The approval of the fire department of a member for chief is tantamount to election because the trustees usually accept the recommendation.

Simonsen, an employe of the R & J Chevrolet garage said he is not ready yet to announce his appointment to the position of assistant chief.

As a member of the village board he will be in the awkward position of passing on his own appointment.

Pure Milk Association Offers 8 Scholarships

The Pure Milk association is again offering eight scholarships of $25, each to deserving young people from PMA families interested in attending Farm and Home Week, according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County Farm Adviser.

Application blanks may be obtained at the farm adviser's office in Grayslake. All applications must reach the University of Illinois not later than January 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Mau attended funeral services for their cousin, August C. Roepke held at Burlington Tuesday, Dec. 27. Interment was in Concordia Cemetery at Burlington. Mr. Roepke died of a heart attack at his home in Bassett, Dec. 23, following a brief illness. He is survived by a daughter, Ruth Charlton and a granddaughter, Linda Charlton, of Kenosha; a sister, Mrs. Emma Hildebrandt, of Bassett; two brothers, William of Kenosha and George of Milwaukee.

Christmas Seal Sale Ahead of Last Year; Total $30,643.57

Christmas Day may be over, but the Christmas spirit still prevails at the Lake County Tuberculosis Association, 15 No. County, Waukegan, according to the association's executive secretary, Charles C. Masnamara, who reports that Seal Sale returns thus far total $30,643.57. Masnamara said, this is $1,152.53 over last years total for the same date.

Several county residents explained in letters with their delayed returns that the rush of Christmas preparations had prevented them from acknowledging their seals sooner, and some revealed that they had been out of town, Masnamara said. A few returned their seals with the explanation that they were unable to purchase them at this time, but requested that they be kept on the mailing list in hopes that financial conditions would improve during the coming year.

We want to remind everyone that the work of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association, which is financed through the sale of Christmas Seals, goes on for 365 days of the year. Masnamara continued. Christmas Seal dollars will be invested during 1950 in such tuberculosis prevention and control projects as community and industrial chest x-ray surveys, tuberculin testing in the schools, nursing service, health education and the free chest clinic.

American Legion Collects Toys for Children of Europe

The Antioch post of American Legion has pledged to do its part in the collecting of toys for areas overseas where Santa Claus may not have gone.

Under the slogan "Tide of Toys," the national organization of the Legion is collecting used and new toys for shipment from Philadelphia not later than Jan. 7.

The toys are to be of the sturdy variety, not warlike or electrical, fragile or delicate. They are to be labeled in containers according to pre-school, school, or adolescent ages.

The name of the child giving the toy is to be fastened to the article given with a word of greeting.

In urging each post to do its best in collecting these toys, George N. Craig, national commander, said: "Let's make certain this tide of good will from the children of America to the children of Europe will be of such strength and meaning that the tragedy of war will never turn it."

Local officers are receiving donations of toys from anyone who wishes to give.

Will Close Next Monday

Most of the merchants in Antioch closed their places of business Monday as the legal holiday of Christmas and are planning to follow the same practice next Monday in closing for the legal holiday for New Year Day, since Jan. 1 falls on Sunday.

Have Tonsilectomies

Robert and JoAnne Wilton, children of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Wilton, of Harden st., underwent tonsilectomies at Victory Memorial hospital Monday.

Is Surgical Patient

Richard Kelly of Antioch was a surgical patient at St. Therese hospital Monday.

New Year's Celebration To Cover 2 Day Period, More Interest This Year

Bistros and Other Places of Entertainment Bid for Customers

With a double holiday ahead, the Antioch area will have plenty of time to celebrate the new year, and it probably will give the celebration double measure.

Because New Year's Day falls on Sunday, Monday will become the legal holiday and business practically will be suspended on that day the same as it was for Christmas last Monday.

To the school children it will mark the end of a vacation for they will resume their studies on Tuesday, Jan. 3.

The manner in which the holiday will be celebrated will vary according to the whim or attitude of the individual.

Some will gather in groups to see Little New Year make his appearance; others will seek the hilarity of the taverns; and others will be content to hear celebrations by radio or television.

Some taverns are making extensive preparation for the event.

Somewhat different is the offering of Linders, south of the village which is advertising a New Year breakfast served from 5 to 10 a. m. Sunday.

Thor's and Adolph's Channel Inn are bidding for the company of celebrators Saturday night and Sunday, while Hans and Mable's at Loon lake are putting on a special menu.

Bussie's tavern will have its guests but by reservation only.

Cole's Lakeview Resort at Channel Lake will feature a special party with buffet lunch and favors.

All in all, local residents will not lack places to go for the holidays, and it is believed that a number of summer residents will come out for the holiday, also, if the weather is not too inclement.

Rent Control Office Discontinues Service Here for Lack of Calls

Relations between landlord and tenant in Antioch are so peaceful the rent control office has discontinued its one-day-a-week service it has been conducting at the Antioch State bank.

Hereafter, any rent matters pertaining to Antioch will be handled through the Waukegan office, it was said.

A new streamlined method of notification by which landlords and tenants will serve notice on each other when filing certain rent law actions, rather than having the rent office do it, was announced today to become effective January 2 in the Chicago area, including Cook, Lake, DuPage, Kane and McHenry counties.

Norman B. Shogren, Chicago Chicago area rent director, in making the announcement, said the plan is now provided for nationally under the rent regulations.

He added that it is the goal of the rent office, starting in January, to complete action on all landlord petitions for rent increases within 30 days after they are filed.

"Once on a 30-day basis with landlord petitions for rent increases it will be necessary to have this new streamlined notification plan if we are to keep up with the actions filed," he said.

Shogren pointed out that the law requires that interested parties in any proceeding before the rent office receive proper notice. Heretofore, the Chicago rent office gave notice to the opposing party after it had received the request. The new method, he said, will save time by allowing notice to be given before a request is filed, rather than after.

A More Competitive Economy

The theory that there is any monopoly in retailing—or any indication that monopoly can be attained—is completely refuted by the facts.

The National City Bank has surveyed the 100 largest retail concerns whose sales figures are available. It found that, last year, their sales amounted to just 15 per cent of the national total. And ten years before, in 1938, these 100 companies also accounted for 15 per cent of the national total. The bank concludes, "the volume of business handled by the nationally known stores and chains is neither a large nor increasing share of the country's total retail trade, and there remains ample opportunity for the enterprising and efficient independent merchant." The 100 concerns covered in the bank's compilation include the largest chains in all retail fields, the leading department stores, and the mail-order houses.

Here is a case where the cold statistics simply confirm what anyone can see with his own eyes. In every town in the country retailing is one of the most competitive of all businesses. The customer has a wide choice of stores, as well as of stocks and brands. In the communities where the big national chains have outlets, independent stores are operating along side, are growing, and are holding their share of the business.

Writing in the Atlantic Monthly, Dr. Sumner H. Slichter, the distinguished Harvard economist, said, "The view that competition is less vigorous today than formerly is one of the most pervasive myths of the age. As a matter of fact, the economy is becoming more competitive, not less so, and will continue to become more competitive." Retailing is as good an example of that truth as we find.

The Mechanical Age

Just how many motors are working for you in your home?

Whatever your answer, the chances are that it will be low. Few of us realize the vast amount of motor power, most of it produced by electricity, that we have at our command.

Here, for instance, is a partial list of the motor-operated machines and appliances that are commonly found in homes: refrigerator, mixer, vacuum cleaner, freezer, electric heater, fan, phonograph, dishwasher, ironer, floor polisher, electric razor, movie projector, washing machine, power saw, sewing machine and many others.

These motors that serve us are a reflection of the electric industry's revolutionary contribution to living. We touch a button or turn a switch, and a thousand and one jobs are done quickly and easily—jobs that once would have taken a great deal of time, toil and plain sweat. And electricity serves us at an amazingly low cost. The money we spend for it is among the smallest item in a family's budget, much less in most cases than is spent for tobacco and beverages. It is always there, and always ready.

This industry is a prime example of private enterprise at work. It began with an individual's invention. It was developed through the labor and savings of thousands upon thousands of individuals. It is not a creation of government. It has successfully met an apparently ever-increasing demand for electric service, often under the most difficult conditions. It is one of the largest and most dependable sources of taxation for government. And its contribution to life on the farm and in industry, as in the home, has been immeasurable.

The little motors turn and perform their tasks. A great industry, built by individuals in the American tradition, makes them possible.

We Still Need Them All

Those who believe that navies will be obsolete and unnecessary if war should come again, do not find their view shared by the best authorities.

Dr. Vannevar Bush, the distinguished scientist who is also regarded as one of the best informed civilians on military matters, writes in his important book, Modern Arms and Free Men, "The Mission of the Navy will be as important, and as difficult, as it ever has been in history . . . We are a power in the world and we intend to exert that power, if need be, far from our shores to support our friends and strike an enemy where he is the most vulnerable . . . We shall still need to sweep enemy forces from the seas, whether they are under its surface or above it."

Weapons and techniques have changed, but the role of the Navy has not. Once, for instance, the battleship was the ship of the line, the paramount striking force. Now, as Admiral Forrest P. Sherman has said, "For the foreseeable future, the fast carrier task force will be the principal striking element in our fleets—the core of their offensive power, available to strike far from our own bases and to cover and support the operations of other services."

Today, as yesterday, the security of this nation rests upon all the fighting services—air, ground, and sea. Each has its own vital job to do—none is more or less important than another.

Farm Adviser Says Book For Farm Records Real Bargain, and Great Aid

For only 45 cents, Lake County farmers got a mighty fine bargain in the Illinois Farm Record book this year, says Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas.

Throughout Illinois in 1949, more than 25,000 farmers, GI on-the-farm trainees, and high school vocational students used the book to keep accurate records of income and expense.

The Illinois Farm Record Book is designed to provide simplified, but adequate figures for income tax reports, explains the adviser.

It also furnishes enough information for credit statements to lending agencies, and it will help you study your own farm business at the end of each year.

"This self-study feature is what makes the record book so valuable," Nicholas relates. "It shows which are the profit-making and money-losing parts of your farm business, and in addition gives about 70 suggestions covering crops, livestock, buildings, machinery and labor which should help you improve your farm business."

"More than 30 years of experience in the department of agricultural economics at the College of Agriculture have gone into this practical farm management study. You'll find the results of this experience in the Illinois Farm Record Book, for only 45 cents at the farm adviser's office."

A meeting will be held at the Farm Bureau hall in Grayslake on January 3, at 1:15 p. m. to assist all those who kept records in 1949 in closing their record books, and to start all the new record book keepers.

Lions Club to Entertain

The Lions club will entertain the wives and sweethearts at dinner at Hank's on Rte. 41 north of Rte. 120 on Monday evening, Jan. 9. It will be the occasion for the installation of officers when Irving Carey will become head of the organization.

Veterans Are Told Term Insurance Most Costly Over Long Time Period

While term insurance carries the lowest premium rate of any type of National Service Life Insurance, it will be the most costly over a long period of time, the Illinois Veterans Commission pointed out today.

Term insurance is good for five years only. At the end of that time, providing that Congress continues to extend the privilege of renewal, the cost will be increased. Under permanent plans of insurance the rate remains the same regardless of the veteran's age.

As an example a veteran 30 years of age now pays $7.10 a month for $10,000 of insurance under the five-year level premium term plan. If he renews at the age of 35 his insurance will be increased to $7.60 a month. At the age of 55 he will pay $17.70 a month and at 80 he will have paid a total of $17,130 for $10,000 in insurance.

Many veterans of World War II will have an excellent opportunity to convert to other types of insurance when they receive their dividends next year. Others who have permitted their insurance to lapse can reinstate, regardless of the length of time a policy has lapsed, it can be renewed by passing a physical examination satisfactorily and paying two month's premiums.

Veterans who do not find it economically possible to convert their insurance should retain their term insurance as it does provide protection.

For information or assistance on National Service Life Insurance, veterans should visit their IVC office as soon as possible. In Lake county veterans can be aided at the IVC office located at American Legion Home in Waukegan.

Veterans in Cook county can secure the address of the nearest IVC office by telephoning State 29651.

Spread Phosphate Now Farm Adviser Suggests

If tests show that your soil needs phosphorus, you can spread phosphate right now on soybean stubble and cornstalk ground which has been plowed for seeding to oats next spring.

You can also spread phosphate on stubble cover, but the best place for it is ahead of the legume seeding.

Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County Farm Adviser, says that if you want to apply phosphate to ground which will be in corn or soybeans next year and in oats and legumes next year after, cultivating the two open-cultivated crops will help to mix plant food in the topsoil. Phosphate should be worked into the seedbed—not plowed under, Nicholas stressed.

If you plan to seed legumes in a permanent pasture—and if the seedbed is to be disked rather than plowed—you can spread phosphate now.

Nicholas says the best way to get efficient use of plant food is to test the soil to find out what it needs. You'll get benefits from phosphate in proportion to the amount you apply—up to amount that is actually needed.

If you use rock phosphate, you should test your soil every ten years. If you've used superphosphate, tests should be run every six years.

Nicholas warned against spreading phosphate on land where there is danger of erosion between now and spring.

WHEN BUYING A CAR

We have found, after many years of careful observation, that the most important thing for any used car buyer to do is: Always kick the tires. We don't know why, but all good buyers do it. Some take a rather careless attitude, and just bump it with their toe a little, and others give this kicking business their full attention. Then there is the courteous kicker who acts as though the poor old tire may blow, whether it's on a clunker or a Rolls, but everybody does it. Come in and try it yourself, it's fun.

We are all born equal—Even a new baby owes its share of the National Debt.

MEAT AND NUT CAKE

United States paid Russia $7,200,000 for Alaska—approximately 2c an acre.

All the world loves a lover and they also like water—but a dripping faucet can drive you nuts. (Paul Harvey)

The reason a dollar won't do as much as it once did is because people won't do as much for a dollar as they once did.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
 Who never to himself has said,
 "As he stubbed his toe on the foot of the bed?"

POME DEPT!

DOLLAR vs. CENT

A big silver dollar, a little brown cent,
 Rolling along together they went.

Rolling along the smooth sidewalk,
 When the dollar remarked—
 "for the dollar can talk:
 "You poor little cent, you cheap little mite,
 I'm bigger and more than twice as bright,
 I'm worth more than you a hundred fold.
 And written on me in letters bold.
 Is the motto drawn from the pious creed,
 "In God We Trust," which all can read."

"Yes, I know," said the cent,
 "I'm a cheap little mite,
 And I know I'm not big, nor good nor bright,
 "And yet," said the cent, with a meek little sigh,
 "You don't go to church as often as I."

—Mrs. F. Barret, Grand Rapids

THIS WEEK'S QUIZZER

When is "We is" correct grammar?

Answer to last week's quizzer: What are the longest words in which no letters are repeated?

The longest we know of are ambidextrously, undiscoverably, and uncopyrightable. Each contains all the vowels, a, e, i, o, u, and more than half the letters of the alphabet. Do you know of any longer ones?

Uncle Sam Says

Buying U. S. Savings Bonds is the best way I know to stop worrying about money. And if you persist in worrying, after starting to pile up money the sure, automatic way, the only worry you'll have is how best to spend it when you start cashing in after ten years. Your government offers two great plans, both of them automatic and both profitable. They are the Payroll Savings Plan where you work, or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. If you can sign up for a $37.50 bond each month they'll grow to $4,998 in 10 years. U.S. Treasury Department

Polyphosphates

Compounds known as polyphosphates have become extremely useful in industry for thinning clay and pastes. They are, for example, added to drilling muds, the clays used to lubricate oil well drills and to float away the rock as it is cut by the drill. Polyphosphates are also employed to thin pastes of titanium dioxide, the dense white pigment applied to rayon to reduce shininess.

YOUR KEY TO GREATER VALUE

Hard to believe but -

This Buick costs less than Butter!

MAYBE you never thought of it that way, since you don't buy butter in 3600-pound lots.

But pound for pound, this prideful Buick SPECIAL sells today for less than store-bought butter!

Actually, it costs less per pound than some of the cars in the so-called "lowest price" bracket—less than any other straight-eight on the market.

Now that's a pretty important yardstick.

Because cost-per-pound is a pretty stable measure of a car's merit. It takes skilful engineering, careful buying, efficient manufacturing to keep this figure around the half-dollar mark—and that's where it is on the 1950 SPECIAL 4-door Sedan.

The real point, of course, is that this is a Buick at that figure.

Buick styling. Buick valve-in-head straight-eight power. Buick steadiness and roadability. The gentle cushioning power of Buick 4-wheel coil springing.

Buick room, finish, standing — with a special plus these days in greater maneuverability to help you slip into tight parking spaces and home-size garages. Buick's unmistakable appearance, through gracefully tapering fenders and that new "Buick first," that sturdy, shock-absorbing, triple-purpose bumper-guard grille.

All this at price tags that "sound like a six" and a cost-per-pound right down with the very lowest!

So—if you can afford butter, why not a Buick? Talk to your dealer about it—delivered prices, trade-ins, delivery dates, all the rest—and make your next car a Buick.

ALL YOURS FOR ONLY $1878.00

The roomy 3-passenger 1950 Buick SPECIAL Coupe shown delivers for this figure, plus state and local taxes if any. Prices subject to change without notice. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to transportation charges. DYNAFLOW PRICE REDUCED $40. This 1950 Buick SPECIAL is available with Dynaflo Drive at $40 less than November prices.

Saturday is Last Day Disabled Vets May Reinstate Ins.

Only a few days remain for disabled veterans of World War II to take advantage of a special provision of the National Service Life Insurance laws, the Illinois Veterans Commission warned today.

Veterans with disabilities incurred in service between October 8, 1940 and September 2, 1945, who desire to reinstate their insurance or apply for new insurance, must do so before December 31, 1949, to qualify under the health requirements without having those disabilities counted against them.

After December 31, 1949, all impairments to health, including those due to service, will be considered in determining insurability.

Veterans who want to beat the deadline for this special benefit should contact their nearest Illinois Veterans Commission service officer immediately. Payment of two months' premiums along with a physical examination is all that is required. The examination can be taken from the veteran's own physician or at a Veterans Administration center if available.

Two State Production Record Made by Cows At Ravenglen Farms

Two state production records have been made by registered Holstein-Friesian cows named by E. H. Ravnsroft, Antioch, according to the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Ravenglen Senatora Karen takes the lead for all of Illinois' senior 3-year-old Holsteins milked three times daily in the ten-months' division, with the production of 715 pounds of butterfat and 17,323 pounds of milk testing 4.1%.

Ravenglen Senatora Triune takes the lead for all of Illinois' senior 4-year-old Holsteins milked three times daily in the ten-months' division, with the production 795 pounds of butterfat and 17,807 pounds of milk testing 4.5%.

Qualifications for the ten-months' division of the advanced registry include special calving requirements in addition to high production records. These requirements are intended to place emphasis on reproductive qualities as well as productive ones.

Arch Ward Will Address First All-Sports Banquet At N. I. S. T. C. Feb. 3

DeKalb, Ill.—Arch Ward, sports editor of the "Chicago Tribune," will speak at the First Annual All-Sports Banquet for all varsity athletes of Northern Illinois State Teachers College February 3.

This affair, the first attempt to pay tribute to all athletes of all varsity sports in Northern's intercollegiate program in one gala program, will displace the separate ceremonies that were formerly held for the major sports alone.

President Leslie A. Holmes says, "I hope that the affair may become a tradition. Combining the separate events into one affords us a chance to bring an outstanding personality, such as Mr. Ward, to our campus."

Record Corn Carry-Over
There was far more corn from previous crops carried over on October 1 in the United States than ever before in our agricultural history. At more than 800 million bushels, the total was more than six times greater than a year ago and was actually about 300 million bushels greater than the amount of corn normally leaving the farms on which it is grown each year.

Chicago Board Good Guide
With the lone exception of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange in Canada, no other free, open, grain market exists in the world outside the United States. As a result, United States grain prices brought about competitively in our own open markets such as the Chicago Board of Trade, serve as a realistic guide to businessmen and farmers throughout the world who deal in grains.

Wheat Brought by Colonists
Wheat, which now constitutes one of the most important crops in America, was brought to this country by the early colonists from Europe.

U. S. Largest Producer
The United States is currently the largest producer in the world of wheat, corn, oats and soybeans. The major farm products exported from the United States are wheat, cotton, and tobacco.

Wheat Needs Much Moisture
Agricultural research shows that it takes from 30 to 80 tons of moisture per season to grow a bushel of wheat.
